John Figueira Jr.
Loving husband, father,
grandfather, and brother; 65

LOWELL -- John Figueira Jr., 65, died unexpectedly Sunday, July 6th due to complications after surgery, at the Lahey Clinic in Burlington, with his family by his side. He was the beloved husband of 44 years to Carol T. (Hand) Figueira.

John was born in Lowell, MA on May 13, 1949, a son of the late Wilhelmina "Della" (Camacho) and John Figueira, Sr. He was educated in Lowell and a graduate of Lowell Technical High School class of 1970.

For many years, he worked as a machinist for Contract Machine in Burlington, and then most recently for Idea's Inc. in Lowell.

John was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather and brother. He loved his family more than anything and cherished the time he spent with them, especially his grandson. John was a member of the East End Club in Lowell, and enjoyed going to flea markets and camping up at Totem Pole Park in Lake Ossipee, NH, where he was known as "Big John". He had a fun and loving personality and was a great story teller.

Along with his wife Carol, he is survived and will be deeply missed by his two sons, John Figueira III of Lowell, James Figueira and his wife, Jaclyn of Concord, NH; cherished grandson, Callen; brother, Raymond Figueira and his wife, Rebecca of Ayer; his step-grandmother, Mary Grout of Tyngsboro; his godchildren, Jessica and William Figueira; brothers-in-law, Richard Hand of Lowell, John Hand and his wife, Debra of Melrose, Bill Hand of Billerica, and Leonard Hand of Lowell; as well as several other nieces, nephews and cousins; as well as close friends at Totem Pole Park.

FIGUEIRA -- Relatives and friends are invited to pay their respects from 4-8 p.m. THURSDAY, July 10th at the DRACUT FUNERAL HOME, 2159 Lakeview Ave., DRACUT. His funeral will be held at the funeral home at 11:30 a.m. on FRIDAY with burial to follow at St. Mary's Cemetery in Tewksbury.
